Play Your Favorite Games Using Q-Link Electronic Mail

MARSHALL RENS

Calling all gamers! If you're into playing games via E-Mail, you've got to check out Just For Fun's Play-By-Mail Arena. That's where you and a nationwide network of PBM fans can play your favorite games using the technology of Q-Link's electronic mail system and message boards to communicate with each other.

Many games you and your fellow 'Linkers love to play lend themselves well to the Play-By-Mail (PBM) format, including sports and adventure games — almost any type of game in which players take turns.

"Play-By-Mail" Meets '90s Technology

The PBM industry has a growing core of followers across the country. PBM games were originally developed (with games like chess) to allow people with common interests to play games even if they lived far apart. Rather than sit down at a table together, the players sent letters back and forth describing their moves on the game board.

With the expansion of the home computer market and growth of online services, people can now exchange turns via modem and speed up the action.

In Just For Fun's Play-By-Mail Arena, you can register to play Chess, sports games, Diplomacy, and more. You can even start a game of your own — PBM games usually require a gamemaster to moderate play. Just post a message in the PBM Recruitment Center to sign people up.

Then, use Q-Link's E-Mail system to set the scene and get the action started! Games can last several months, but players can commit as much or as little time as they would like to the game and still have lots of fun. You don't even need any particular expertise in E-Mail gaming to play — all are welcome, from amateur to pro. Feel free to schedule live meetings of your players online in the Arena's Players' Pub!

Discover the fun of Play-By-Mail gaming for yourself. Consult the About PBM Games file in this special and dynamic area, located in Just For Fun's Gaming Connection.

CATCH THE FEVER!

Manage Your Own Fantasy Football Team

Ken Schoenberg ("The Ref") hosts Q-Link's sports-minded The Grandstand℠ area, located in Just For Fun's Sports Center. Every year, sports fans gather to draft their dream football teams and compete in The Grandstand Football League (GFL℠). Fantasy teams are made up of real NFL players, and the players' real-life performances determine scoring and standings for the GFL teams. As usual, Ken got an early start on his GFL activities this year, as he relates below.

For most people spring brings thoughts of flowers and romance, but that's hardly the case for the front office staff of the Grandstanders. It's only June as this article goes to press, and the football draft is a little more than two months away, but after choking in the first round of the playoffs last season, the current management of G–Standers is under pressure to produce or vamoose.

"Sure we have the best record in The Grandstand Football League (GFL) over the past three seasons, and yes, we've been struck with more than our fair share of injuries and off-field problems. But to me, that's no excuse," stated not–so-soft-spoken team owner, "The Ref."

"I've got a whole bunch of fingers here without championship rings on them, and that either changes real quick or them players and that overpaid, expense–account devouring, group of scouts I let hang around me are going to find themselves working for the Aggies," the Aggies being the GFL's version of Tampa Bay.

Obviously feeling the strain, Head Coach, Rast A. Fas and his staff are working around the clock since losing a heart–breaker in the opening round of the playoffs. Poring over stat reports, scrutinizing miles of game videos and working on a drafting strategy that will once again put Grandstanders in the "Byte Bowl" has become an obsession for what many consider the finest group of coaches in the League.

The Ref obviously feels otherwise.

"George Bush was almost right, there are a lot of 'points' out there, but none of them ended up on the G-Standers' side of the scoreboard last season. Sometimes I think the only points we have around here are on the heads of my staff."

KEN SCHOENBERG

When asked if their owner's "hands–on" management style made things more difficult, Fas quipped, "Aww, The Ref means well, he can't help it if he went to the General George Patton School of Interpersonal Relationships. We'll win this thing, jam another ring on one of his fingers and it'll be back to those cheerleader scouting trips in the Caribbean for us."

When questioned about the team's strategy for the coming season, Fas stated, "I don't want to give too much away to the other owners in the league, but this year's version of the Grandstanders will be anything but 'kinder and gentler.' I'm looking to have the division (Tastes Great Division) locked up by mid–October. We're going to roll up some big scores. No one comes out of a game until we hit 50 points."

Pre-Season Meeting Scheduled for August 10

While the antics of the G–Standers' front office is capturing headlines, countless other GFL teams have quietly begun their pre-season preparation. Team officials are evaluating the recent National Football League draft, medical reports on injured players are in hot demand, and there has been a run on "helmet" phones.

It's not too late to enter a team in the GFL. A quick stop by The Grandstand, located in Just For Fun's Sports Center, will provide all the information you need to own a franchise in the nation's most hotly-contested fantasy football league. You, along with seven other owners, can draft players off the rosters of actual National Football League teams and pit them against one another every week.

Your players' accomplishments during their regular NFL season games will determine your team's performance. If you have Joe Montana and Jerry Rice on your squad, then that 54-yard TD bomb for the Forty–Niners also means points for your team.

Throughout the season, you'll be burning up the lines with trade offers, free agent moves, and the weekly posting of your team's press release.

If this sounds like a lot of fun, be warned: the pressure can be intense, and the late moments of a game can bring about a great deal of stress, spilled drinks, and flying pizza. Unsubstantiated reports last season had The Ref being rushed to a hospital with his foot stuck in a smoking 19–inch color TV.

The GFL pre-season meeting for the 1990-91 season takes place on Friday, August 10 at 10 p.m. in the People Connection Auditorium. Complete information and rules about Grandstand Fantasy Football are available in The Grandstand's Fifty-Yard Line area.

Don't miss your chance to take part in the action!

Count Down to Prizes At the QSIDs Countdown

"SADIE"

"...and at number one, for the second week in a row, is that hard-rockin' SID by 'BJ Pools': Guns 'n' Roses' 'Sweet Child of Mine...'"

It may sound like the Top 40 Countdown on your local radio station, but this musical program is different: for one thing, it comes at you live over the phone wires instead of the radio waves, and for another, this is the countdown where your vote for best song gets play time every week!

You're missing more than the music if you haven't downloaded the Super Q software — you need it to play Puzzler, Q-Link's new animated game! Download Super Q tonight in Just For Fun's Super Q Center.

This is the QSIDS COUNTDOWN room, Tuesdays at 9 p.m. in Music Connection, where you can groove to the tunes of the most-requested SIDs on Q-Link. You also have the chance to win free CDs, an Express Music catalog, or free connect time just for attending.

"HeatherRay" and "Sadist" will be spinning the top songs as voted by members on the Countdown Vote board in QSociety and the Super Q Center, located in Just For Fun. Cast your vote, then come to the countdown to see how your favorite Q-Link tunes rate this week.

Are you wondering what was hot ten years ago today? In addition to today's top pop songs, your Countdown deejays will also help you relive old times with classic oldies from yesteryear.

Where else can you win a free CD and get your requests "spun" every week? Don't miss the countdown to fun Tuesdays at 9 p.m. at Q-Link's QSIDS COUNTDOWN. Watch out, Casey Kasem and Dick Clark, the QSIDs Countdown is coming at you!

RabbitJack's Casino

Join the QRJs and CCGs for the Fight of the Gladiators!

Triumphant Team Will Share 50,000 Q-Pons!

Waking from a long sleep, a gladiator of yore came upon RabbitJack and CCG Khoona. These strange warriors, clearly from another time and place, spoke of some 'GREAT games'. "Great Jupiter!" thought the gladiator. "My unusual counterparts are getting ready to play some ferocious games in a coliseum they called the 'Casino'!"

WHAT ARE THESE MIGHTY GAMES YOU ASK? Be there no question that the numerous armies of RabbitJack's Casino® and the mighty legions of Club Caribe℠ will engage in the first-ever Battle of the Q-Gladiators, lasting all month long in RabbitJack's Casino.

The Casino QRJs and Caribe CCGs will square off and fight to the death in this tournament featuring variations of Poker, Blackjack and Bingo.

Small battalions of five gladiators will be formed consisting of four warriors and one CCG or QRJ battalion leader. Battles will be fought at special events throughout the month, and for each game completed victoriously, the winning team will receive a predetermined point value.

The overall championship team will be the fierce fighters who acquire the most points by the end of the competition (and are still standing). The survivors of the winning team will be handsomely rewarded with a king's ransom of 50,000 Q-Pons! And the overall QRJ or CCG army that captures the most points will win the bragging rights for a full year!

If you think you are cut from the kind of tunic that it takes to be a gladiator, and desire to gain honor for your army, contact "QRJ Signup" or "CCG Khoona" via E-Mail.

For more information about the Battle of the Q-Gladiators, be sure to read the message boards in RabbitJack's Casino and Club Caribe for complete details. Watch for official rules of combat, "The Coliseum," and an arena negotiations area in BOTH departments.

Make haste, ye young warriors, and join in the Battle of the Q-Gladiators. Let the games begin! (Just For Fun/Gaming Connection/ Casino Club or Club Caribe Travel Guide)

For the first time ever, the Casino and Caribe staffs are facing off for the Battle of the Q-Gladiators! To join a team and claim your share of the victors' 50,000 Q-Pon prize, visit Just For Fun's Gaming Connection today!

We're choosy.

Only the best name-brand products are selected for our database.

And there are over 250,000 of them! From kids' toys to wallpaper...from Nintendo to Westinghouse. It's no wonder why thousands of members across the country have made Comp-u-store OnLine their "number one" shopping choice. Browse our "store" and discover:

Low, low prices. So low, in fact, that if you can find a lower price on any item you buy from us, we'll refund the difference.* And, that's our guarantee.

Convenience and service when you need it... weekdays, 6 p.m. to 7 a.m. and 24 hours a day, weekends.

Now, it's your turn to be choosy — shop for the best...with the best. Find us on the Mall menu, or call us now at 1-800-843-7777, and get 3 months for only $1. Then unless you notify us otherwise, we will continue your membership for a full year and bill you only $30, which will be cheerfully refunded should you decide to discontinue your membership any time during your first year of membership.
